

Kim Robbins

February 26, 1954 - October 30, 2017

Kim Robbins was born February 26, 1954 in Hinsdale, Illinois. He moved to Bellingham to go to college at Western Washington University and got his Bachelor's degree in Physical Education.

He loved sports more than anything in the world. He was an All American Diver in high school and went on to briefly coach the Bellingham High Schools in diving with much success. He lived for Chicago sports especially and was thrilled beyond words when "Daaaa Cubbies" won the World Series in 2016.

He traveled the world as a kid with his parents and sister. He lived in Sri Lanka, Saudi Arabia and Switzerland, and visited so many other places. His stories of his adventures were endless.

He was loved by all who had the pleasure of knowing him and his charismatic personality and loud, booming voice that could be heard from way across the room. He will be missed by many. He is survived by his son Matthew Robbins, daughter Melissa Robbins, and his two granddaughters.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ Matt and Melissa, We are very sad to hear about your dads passing. We will miss him. He was a great friend, we had a lot of good times with him. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for your family.

Jack and DeAnna Hanssen - October 30, 2017 at 12:00 AM

RG

“ I just wanted to express how sorry I was to hear of the loss of Kim. I will always have fond memories of my adventures with Kim in my life. He was a free spirit of a young man that I became friendly with as he was my older brother, Tim's friend. He was important in my life a long time ago, Kim was always nice to me and I liked him very much. He was also an important part of the lives of many people from Hinsdale Central. The swim team idolized him! I have not seen Kim in a long while but I was very saddened to hear about his passing. Words can not express how much he will be missed.

Rob Ganley - October 30, 2017 at 12:00 AM