A woman of diverse interests, Kris found joy in various activities. She embraced the greens of the golf course, honing her skills while relishing the camaraderie of the game. Her strikes on the bowling alley showcased her competitive spirit, as well as her ability to connect with others through friendly competition. One of her favorite pastimes was shopping, especially when done in the company of her dear friends and family.

She is survived by her husband Frenchy, son Joss, mother Jan, and brothers Tim and Rob, who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts. While she may no longer be physically present, her spirit lives on in the stories, laughter, and love that she shared with all who were fortunate enough to know her.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made in her name to Lydia Place.

As we remember and honor Kris' life, let us find solace in the beautiful memories we shared with her and keep her spirit alive by embracing the joy she found in every moment.
