

Kyle Joseph Vincent Housley

August 26, 1987 - July 28, 2020

Kyle Housley was born on August 26, 1987 in San Bernadino, CA and passed away on July 28, 2020 in Bellingham, WA.

Kyle was funny, positive, caring, kind, and trustworthy. He loved his friends and family and was especially protective over his sisters. They have many memories of Kyle sticking up for them when they were little, and one particularly funny memory of Kyle tickling himself like a monkey and falling out of a tree. Kyle had a way of leaving a mark on everyone he met.

He loved brewing beer and drinking beer and spent many hours at Kulshan Brewery immersed in good conversations with friends. A talented gardener, Kyle was especially gifted at growing Cannabis. He was proud of his position as Master Grower at Sky Standard Gardens in Bellingham.

He will be forever missed by his mom, Cyndie Gudbranson; dad, Chris Gudbranson; sisters, Heidi Stifle and Payton Gudbranson; and his four nieces and one nephew.

Tribute Wall

KW

“ Kyle Housley, My first love... we sure did have a good time. We had kittys and a snake named kaa at one point. We would dive for what seemed like hours trying to find “the spot”. Once we found it we would kiss, smoke and watch the sun fade. Our love was one for the books, kyle really taught me alot, more then he ever knew. He really made me feel like a goddess. Adventure after Adventure not one with out a endless smiles. My heart aches that we lost him so soon, but im so thankful for the time we shared.my condolences to his beautiful family. He will be greatly missed.

Kassy Wibdus - August 24, 2020 at 12:00 AM

JA

“ I got to know Kyle pretty well over this last year. We were roommates and Kyle was right across the hall from me. Most nights before bed he'd knock on my door and give me some of his dank grow (that dude had a serious talent for growing good bud). Anytime I had a bad day I knew I could come home for a beer, cig, and chat with Kyle and he would make me laugh and forget about my worries. When I came out as non-binary to the house he did everything in his power to make me feel comfortable and valid and I can't thank him enough for that. I'm sad Kyle won't be the first person I say wassuuup to in the morning. We're all gonna miss you bud. Thanks for being such an amazing roommate and friend. I'll never forget the time we had together.

Jabree - August 24, 2020 at 12:00 AM

KO

“ Kyle was a home away from home to me, as our oregon roots were mutually comforting.

The heart in that man was one of a kind. The support he gifted many with flowed straight from his heart and as genuinely as it gets. He was the good guy my daughter needed as a male role model, like he promised. I am immensely grateful for the time she and I shared with him. Kaly loved Kyle dearly, not only because he'd fill her pockets with all the candy that could fit in them, but because he showed her a genuine love too.

To those that helped him develop in to such a beautifully souled human thank you. Our family sends our condolences and love to Kyle and his family.

Kodi - August 24, 2020 at 12:00 AM

LC

“ Kyle, you will never know just how much your memorial to my son
❤️ The brass knuckles tattoo was such a tribute to my son and I've never forgot you!! You were such a caring, sincere person. Now you and Jeffry are sitting there with your matching tattoos in heaven ❤️
❤️ I won't forget you Kyle ❤️❤️

Lisa Cuevas - August 24, 2020 at 12:00 AM