

Kylor Shawn Phair

May 12, 1990 - June 16, 2018

Kylor Shawn Phair, 28, passed away on June 16, 2018 at Providence Hospital in Everett, Washington. He was born on May 12, 1990 in Bellevue, Washington, to Tony Phair and Judy Chapin. Kylor was a member of the Lummi Nation, but resided in Lake Stevens Washington. He graduated from Lake Stevens High School in 2008, and attended Everett Community College. Kylor's career was spent as an aerospace mechanic for The Boeing Company.

Kylor enjoyed spending his free time with family, friends, and the gym. Kylor loved barbecues, motorcycles, and working out. He was so dedicated to working out, he decided to compete in body building and made many friends along the way. He was very outgoing and always giving, his friends and family always came first.

Kylor is survived by his parents Tony Phair, and Judy Chapin; his brother Nevin Phair; his grandmother Diane Chapin; and his dog Homer Phair. Kylor is also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins; and friends, many of whom he considered family.

“ Kyler, We didn't get to spend much time together but when we did ,we always had a good time. I'm definitely going to miss your big bright smile, funny joke & your sense of humor. What happened to you shows that life is so short and in a second it can all be gone. What breaks my heart is that you were only 28 years old and you didn't get to experience life to the fullest. I know you would've been great at whatever you achieved in your life. I know that you're in heaven and reignited with loved ones watching down on us. I hope one day we'll see each other again. You'll forever be missed & never forgotten! We love you Kyler
