

Lloyd Dean Jorgenson

June 30, 1937 - July 10, 2025

Lloyd Dean Jorgenson, 88, died at his home in Ocean Shores on July 10th of both cardiac and renal failure. He was born in Hamilton, Montana on June 30th, 1937 to Harold and Elsie (Reichel) Jorgenson. His family moved to Washington when he was five and he later moved to Auburn. He enlisted in the Army in 1955 and served with the occupation troops in Korea.

In 1960 he married Barbara Huntley in Lynden, WA. They moved to G.H. in 1964 and Lloyd worked 36 years in plywood at Evans Products and later owned a share at Hoquiam Plywood. He enjoyed fishing the local rivers both plunking and drifting. Lapidary work was also a hobby, and he made many beautiful pieces. He enjoyed being a member of a VFW Honor Guard and also belonged to the American Legion and Sons of Norway.

He is survived by his wife Barbara and three children: David (Sharon) of Red Bluff, CA, Janel Barnes (Brennan) of Olympia and Matthew, Hoquiam. He is also survived by five sisters: Agnes Bennett, Ellensburg, Mary Anne Ward, Colville, Linda Davis, Pacific, Diana Holz, Auburn, and Tina Layos, Buckley. Also, a brother, Norman Layos, Auburn.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a son, Andrew, sister, Inez Hammer, and brothers Floyd, Kenny and Robert.

Services will be held at Moles Farewell Tributes Ferndale, WA on July 18th at 10 am. And burial beside his son at Greenacres Memorial Park, Ferndale with military honors. Memorials may be made to a charity of one's choice or Ronald McDonald House, Seattle.

Tribute Wall

LW

“ Our amazing, enthusiastic, fun brother in arms, in family – you fought hard! You are a family favorite with all!! A fierce patriot, you loved our nation and all who serve it. We’ll miss you and look forward to seeing on the other side!

Lloyd & Maryanne Ward - July 15, 2025 at 12:00 AM