

Logan Glen Penland

January 22, 1987 - March 16, 2024

Logan (Jared) Glen Penland, a cherished high school teacher, son, brother, uncle, musician, and artist, passed away unexpectedly on March 16, 2024. He leaves behind a legacy of passion, kindness, and dedication to education and creativity.

Born to Floyd and Rhonda Penland, Logan grew up surrounded by love and encouragement. He is preceded in death by his Father, Floyd,

And is survived by his mother Rhonda Penland Bjerke, brother Jonathan (Dahlia) Penland, nephew Oliver Penland, sister Jaime Lynn Penland, Uncle Bart (Julie) Hike, and Grandmother Dorothy Hike. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins who loved him dearly.

Logan's impact as a high school teacher extended beyond the classroom; he inspired countless students with his enthusiasm for learning and his commitment to helping them succeed. His passion for music and talent as a musician brought joy to those around him, and his innovative spirit in creating educational video games reflected his dedication to making learning engaging and accessible.

In honoring Logan's memory, let us remember his warmth, humor, and unwavering love for his family and friends. His legacy will continue to inspire and uplift us all.

Tribute Wall

BH

“ Logan Penland, thank you for being one of the best human beings I've ever known. ❤️ you're inspiration was infectious and directly responsible for making me a better artist and person. the world isn't so much worse without you as it is better because you were here.

❤️

Bryar Herrick - September 26, 2024 at 12:00 AM