

Lorelei Hanson

November 29, 1950 - October 21, 2019

Born Nov. 29, 1950 to Herbert and Thelma Hanson, one of 10 children. In her younger years she was active in sports, playing softball and field hockey. Lorelei was a member of Motor Maids and enjoyed many road trips on her Harley through the U.S. and Canada. She retired from Conoco Philips.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brothers Frank, Chuck, and Dale; and her sisters Arlene, Marilyn, and Pauline. She is survived by her brothers Jerry Birdsey (Sheila) and Robert Hanson (Ruby); her sister Leona Allen (Earl); many nieces and nephews; and special nephew Jordan Stone and his children Breanna and Jordan.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, Nov. 2, 2019, at 1:00 p.m. at Moles Farewell Tributes – Greenacres (5700 Northwest Drive, Ferndale, WA 98248). A private graveside service will take place at a later date at Lummi Island Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to: Pigs Peace Sanctuary (Stanwood, WA) or Bellingham Cancer Center.

“ I was shocked and sad to hear about her passing. we rode Harleys together for 10 years or more. We were in the Motor Maids which we both loved. We had wonderful times riding to Sturgis, Yellowstone, Reno, California, Oregon and Canada. She loved to ride and we enjoyed a craft beer wherever we ended up. She was always kind, generous and helpful to all she touched. I will miss her very much.
