

Lucille Lillian Bailey

January 23, 1928 - January 31, 2013

Lucille Lillian (Ritchie) Bailey, age 85, passed away peacefully on January 31, 2013 in Bellingham. She was born on January 23, 1928 to Lillian Suzy Dick and Leonard Sion Ritchie. Lucille is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Charles Bailey, and brothers Leonard and Kenny. She is survived by her sister Margaret (Doug), and brother Robert (Marion), children; Jan (Chuck) Willis, Marie (David) Honrud, and Ron (Christine) Bailey, and numerous grandchildren.

Lucille graduated from Meridian High School and Western Washington Normal School (now WWU) with a teaching degree. She proudly taught kindergarten at Custer Elementary School for 16 years after which she retired and greatly enjoyed traveling the world with her husband, sister and friends. She was active in her church, singing in the choir and helping to start the soup and roll luncheons. She was married to Charles for 40 years and was proud of her role as wife, mother, and grandmother.

Her final resting place is Woodlawn Cemetery in Ferndale.

“ To all the loving Family and Friends may I offer my sympathy in the painful loss of your dear Lucicle. She lived a life of giving to the little children and will be long-remembered by those who knew and loved. Hopefully you will be comforted by the following Bible Verses: Isaiah25:8 “HE WILL ACTUALLY SWALLOW UP DEATH FOREVER AND THE SOVEREIGN LORD JEHOVAH WILL CERTAINLY WIPE THE TEARS FROM ALL FACES”
