Lynette Paige Feathers passed away Dec. 5, 2019 after a short battle with cancer. She was born in Bellingham on March 15, 1949 to Charles and Faye (Adkinson) Feathers. At the age of 3 Lynette contracted polio. Her father passed away that same year. Lynette never allowed her disability to hinder her zest for life.

She graduated from Bellingham High School and attended Aurora College in Aurora, Illinois. Lynette went on to work as a legal secretary. In 1978, she became a communications officer with the Washington State Patrol. Lynette devoted 33 years of service to the State of Washington. She was "Aunt Lynette" to many.

Lynette loved to read. She enjoyed traveling. She was a member of the North Sound Dragon Boat team. She traveled to numerous races with her team throughout Washington and into British Columbia.

Lynette was preceded in death by her parents, her brother Charles Feathers and her husband R. Scott Thompson. Lynette is survived by her sister Jeanice (Bill) Raymond, brother Dennis (Jerri) Feathers, stepsister Betty Anita Hicks and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Lynette had a great sense of humor and loved life.

A celebration of Lynette's life will be held sometime this upcoming summer.
