“ Marion was a kind, thoughtful and loving sole. If you had the pleasure of bumping into her at the store she'd talk your ear off – but always made certain she asked about each and every family member. Right up to her last days of driving she made certain to put wreaths or flowers on all the family gravesites. Always putting others before herself. Another great family member gone – but always fondly remember. Marion be sure to say “Hi” to Tante & Uncle and give mom and dad a kiss for me! Love ya!!

“ I spent many an hour with Marion! She was a good friend for many years and we enjoyed lots of lunches together. I worked in the Finance Office and we met there back in the 70's. Marta
