Always positive.

A sharp sense of humor.

The very best listener.

Extraordinarily strong.

No flowers, please. Your kind thoughts are more than enough.

Charities: Contributions to the Bellingham Food Bank are greatly appreciated.

An informal service for Marsha will be held on Saturday, August 26th, 2pm at Marsha and Michael's home. 106 Carter Drive, in Bellingham. Please consider parking at Birchwood Elementary School, a short, ten-minute walk away.

From 2 – 3 PM tour Marsha's garden and, along the way, meet and share stories of our lovely friend with others. At 3:00, or so, Michael will say a few words, followed by bagpipes at Marsha's request. Afterwards, feel free to stay a while in poignant contemplation of the passing of our dear friend. (Laughter and tears are encouraged.)

“ She was my second mom as a kid. I always loved her, even after many years of not seeing her. She always welcomed me with much love. Such an enormous loss to us all. Rest in peace.
