

Mary J. Miller

March 17, 1949 - July 7, 2019

Mary J. Miller, age 70, of Bellingham passed away (from breast cancer complications) on July 7, 2019. Mary was born in Baraboo, Wisconsin on March 17, 1949 to Russell and Martha Miller. She moved to Washington in 1967. Mary graduated with a B.A. degree in sociology from the UW in 1976, and she worked at Western Washington University well over thirty years. She was preceded in death by her parents. Mary is survived by a brother, Barton, of Bellingham and a nephew, Clint, of Saskatchewan and a special friend, Terry Sanford. At her request, there will be no services.

Tribute Wall

KF

“ We are sad that Mary is gone. She was a nice woman and a good friend. Her optimistic spirit never flagged. We want to thank Terry for the help, love, and support he gave Mary.
Rest in peace, Mary.
Your friends,
Karen and Maury Foisy

Karen Foisy - July 07, 2019 at 12:00 AM

JZ

“ Mary was my second cousin and friend. We became friends when we went to high school together in Baraboo, Wisconsin, and kept in touch visiting, writing, and talking over the years. She was such a positive force of energy. I will miss her greatly. I also want to thank Terry for the special care and friendship he gave to her, especially during her last illness. It means a lot.

Janice Zimmerman - July 07, 2019 at 12:00 AM

RN

“ i LIVED ACROSS THE FENCE FROM mARY, FOR 3 YEARS. sHE WAS A DELIGHTFUL, THOUGHTFUL AND SWEET LADY. sHE AND i WOULD VISIT OVER THE FENCE LIKE NEIGHBORS DID, IN THE 50'S AND 60'S. i WILL MISS HER.
tERRY, i AM SO SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS. YOU MEANT A GREAT DEAL TO HER.

rOCKY gLEGHORN OVER FENCE NEIGHBER - July 07, 2019 at 12:00 AM