

Mildred E. Brown

June 15, 1924 - July 7, 2014

Bellingham, WA

Mildred Brown, age 90, of Bellingham, passed away July 7, 2014. She was born to John and Myrtle Bartlett in Butte, MT, and raised with her brother Howard and a group of special cousins Doris, Rene, Mary Evelyn, and Verna. Mildred met the love of her life Lloyd Brown in Butte, and was married in 1946. They started their family in Deer Lodge, MT where they lived until their move to Bellingham in 1953. Fond memories include family visits and reunions to Butte. Mildred maintained in contact with her Butte families her entire life, including extended family ties with all of the Brown families.

Mildred's unconditional love and loyalty led to her support of all Lloyd's endeavors. Through 48 years of marriage they shared many adventures together. Side by side they owned businesses, where Lloyd performed the mechanics, and she balanced the books and the family. When Lloyd became ill, she stayed at his bedside for 30 straight days. His recovery brought new adventure including mall walking, which became their daily exercise and social event for the next 5 years. First and foremost, Mildred was wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She was an extraordinary woman and a sweetheart to anyone who met her. All who visited Mildred were showered with treats and goodies from the minute they walked in the door until leaving. Mildred was a passionate homemaker, raising three sons, John (Breta), Hugh and Ron (Vicky). She enjoyed being the built in babysitter, spending precious hours with all four grandchildren Jessica, David, Sophie, and Megan. As great grandma she also cherished visits with Todd, Jessica and Zoe.

Mildred is preceded in death by her parents, brother, husband Lloyd (Bud), and cousins Doris, and Mary Evelyn.

“ My deepest sympathy to Mildred’s family and friends. May you find comfort and hope in the promise recorded for us at Revelation 21:4 where it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. All the best wishes for your my family at this difficult time. I am truly sorry for your loss.
