

Monique Vernice Firmstone Miller

April 2, 2022

Monique Vernice Lillian Firmstone-Miller, was born in Los Angeles, California, on June 12, 1964, and passed from this earth, on April 2, 2022, in her home town of Bellingham, Washington. She is preceded in death by her mother, Audrey Borders, her father's David Firmstone and Darrell Borders, her Aunt, Sylvia Bear, and her Grandmother, Violet Bailey. She is survived by her husband of 33 years, Kenton Miller, her children Brandon and Rachel, her daughter-in-law, Rebecca, her granddaughter, Addison Rose, her sister, Michelle Marshall, and beloved nieces and nephews.

Monique spent her youth in Bellingham, Washington, but because of an adventurer's spirit, she moved back to Los Angeles after high school to pursue a career in graphic design. After completing Graphic Design school, she opened her own company, MozArt Graphic Design. It was during this time, she married her husband, Kenton, and became a mother. Monique, like her mother, had an entrepreneurial spirit and later owned and managed a women's only gym, Contours Express/Body Rock Fitness. Monique did all this while she raised her second child and pursued her degree at Antelope Valley College. In 2018, she retired to Bellingham, Washington, to be with her family. Monique loved to cook, write, travel, golf, ski, bike, and both graphic and interior design. Most of all, she loved her family, friends, and God.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Monique's favorite charity: Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF).

“ I came here by way of a Rod Stewart video. There was a day on the school bus when Monique had a raspy voice and in that raspy voice she said, “I sound like that guy. What’s his name....? Rod Stewart.” I’ve never forgotten her or what she said on that day.
RIP, Monique.
