

Myron Wren Fultz

November 7, 1974 - July 6, 2021

Myron Wren Fultz was born November 7, 1974 in Kodiak, Alaska. He was one of six children and had a special relationship with everyone. Myron was a loving son, brother, the fun “Uncle My” and a special friend to everyone he met. His smile was contagious, and he was always there to lift you up.

Myron was suddenly taken from us on July 6, 2021, after being tragically hit by a motor vehicle. He will be terribly missed by all who knew him.

The world lost a good one that day, but comfort comes by knowing we will see him again “on the other side.”

Myron is preceded in death by his parents Myron & Wanda Fultz of Maple Falls, WA, and siblings Kevin Wheeler of Anchorage, AK, Brett Wheeler of Port Orchard, WA, and Cynthia Knapp of Anchorage, AK. He is survived by his brother Trevor of Maple Falls, WA; nieces Kimberly Wheeler (Shane) of Maple Falls, WA, Echo Doney (Bryan) of Lewiston, ID, Makenna Wheeler, and Brianna of WA; nephews Stan Knapp (Heather) of Texas, and BJ Wheeler; four great-nephews, one great-niece, and numerous other extended family members.

Please share your memories in Myron’s online guestbook.

“ Myron was a student at Susitna Elementary School in Anchorage, Alaska. He was a kind and respectful young man. I was his school principal. My son and he were friends. They skied together at Alyeska and visited each others' homes. I remember his white dog , his mother and his respect for others. I really liked him and remembered him because of his warm personality. I am sorry for your loss.
