

Noreen Lillian Platt

January 1, 1970 - June 11, 2014

June 11, 2014 Bellingham, WA

Noreen L. Platt passed away June 11, 2014. She was born to Clarence and Minnie Kenoyer in Bellingham.

Noreen met Clayton Platt while playing shuffleboard. They were married on Dec. 7, 1958. They enjoyed playing shuffleboard for many years. Noreen worked as a cook at Needham's Care Facility for 30 years. She could make a meal from just about anything and often did. Noreen attended Trinity Lutheran Church and was active in the Women's Aid Group, and she supported many charities.

Noreen loved working in her vegetable and rose garden. She also enjoyed cross-word puzzles, crochet, reading, watching Seattle Mariners, making scrapbooks for her family, and baking chocolate chip cookies for her loved ones. Later in life Noreen enjoyed walking to Win's for coffee with her friends, until she could no longer walk, and then she hitched a ride with someone.

Noreen loved all her grandchildren. She especially loved watching and encouraging them in sports activities.

Noreen is survived by her daughters Karen Myers and Marlene (Earl Franklin)

Platt; son Gerald (June) McKay; 16 grandchildren; 25 great- grandchildren; 7 great- great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by husband Clayton Platt; son Frank McKay; step-son Larry Platt; step-daughter Lois Nelson; sister Louella Smith; brothers Lyle and Ernie Crowder.

“ Dear Mom, I know your heartache and pain oh so well. I hope you are finally at peace now, have no more pain, no regrets, no more I'm sorry's, no more I wish I would have's, and why did I do that's! Because you deserve to be pain free, have no regrets, and absolutely no more I'm sorry's! Weather you believe it our not, you were the most hard working, greatest wife, mother, grandmother, that a person could of had in their life! I will miss you dearly, but you will always be in my heart and soul, and around me within the Dragonfly's Spirit. I love you, Mar!
