

Norma M. Richardson

September 7, 1922 - February 8, 2014

Bellingham, WA

Norma M. Richardson was born on Sept. 7, 1922 and entered her forever home on Feb. 8, 2014 following a stroke.

Mom loved her family above all. She was a wonderful gardener. Growing beautiful flowers and veggies was a lifelong passion. She always had a stash of cookies for the grands and hugs to go along with them. Mom always saw the positive side of life and always had a ready smile for family and friends alike. She was a good cook and loved a table full of family at any time.

Norma is survived by four children: Stan of the family home, Ed (Kari) of Rainer, Donna Edwards (Dan) of Bellingham, and Sharon Dolan of the family homestead. She had seven grandchildren: Jeanine Edwards, Robert Edwards, Scott Richardson, Toby Richardson, Amy Mullen, Kay Sullivan, and Michael Dolan. She had nine great-grandchildren: London and Zane Wilson-Edwards, Jordyn Richardson, Macy Richardson, Brendan and Hadley Sullivan, and Abby, Jacob and Kevin Dolan. She was predeceased by her husband of 68 years, Raymond, as well as two daughters, Peggy Jo and Joyce Ann, her parents and her two brothers.

Per her wishes, there will be no funeral service. There will be a Celebration of her Life in the spring.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ I will miss Aunt Norma and forever treasure my visits with her. I loved her positive attitude & her welcoming way. I'm so glad that we were able to visit her before we moved. I have that memory of her sweet smile & warm hug tucked away in my heart. I admired her gardening talent & enjoyed going way with swiss chard from time to time. She had wonderful children & grands that made her life full of love until the end. I know the memories will make all of you smile whenever you think of her.

Margaret Higbee - February 08, 2014 at 12:00 AM