“ My Empathy goes out to all those who loved Oleg. Oleg was a kind, generous, polite, honest, and considerate person that wished harm upon no one. He possessed an incredibly strong mind and we feel honored that he considered us his friend. Oleg only longed for one thing in life, to find someone special to love. Our society, once again, failed a great man. I pray Oleg finds someone special wherever he now may be.

“ While it saddens me to learn of the death of a loved one such as Oleg, it saddens God even more. He does not want your family to grieve in pain. Please know that He is very much aware of the many fond memories you shared together. That is why, through Christ Jesus, God promises to resurrect those in The Memorial Tombs. (John 5:28,29) As you await the fulfillment of that promise, take comfort from His word and extend comfort to your other grieving loved ones with the same comfort. (2Cor1:3,4) You can also find and share encouragement from the site www.jw.org. All the best wishes for your family at this difficult time.
