

Patricia Ann King

November 7, 1943 - December 16, 2025

Patricia Ann King
(née Pairis)

Patricia Ann King went home to be with her Lord after a life marked by deep faith, sacrificial love, and unwavering devotion to prayer. She was a woman whose life reflected her belief that loving God meant loving people—fully, generously, and without condition.

Patricia was a woman of profound faith who lived her life in service to Jesus Christ. She was an ordained minister and the founder of the nonprofit ministry “Matters of His Heart,” through which she poured out compassion, mentorship, and spiritual guidance to countless individuals. Prayer was not something she did—it was who she was. She faithfully prayed for others, often quietly and consistently, believing deeply in the power of intercession and God’s faithfulness.

Her life was shaped by kindness, humility, integrity, and a genuine love for people. Patricia was thoughtful and giving, always more concerned with the needs of others than her own. She had a gift for friendship and mentorship, walking alongside many through seasons of faith, struggle, and growth. She traveled extensively, sharing the message of Jesus and encouraging others to trust God more deeply.

Those closest to her will remember her most for her gentle strength, her listening ear, and her unwavering faith. Some of her most treasured moments were simple ones—sitting around the kitchen table, sharing stories of God’s goodness, reflecting on past lives and lessons learned, and praying together. She had a remarkable life story and never stopped pointing others back to hope.

Patricia was preceded in death by her husband and her two children—twins—one stillborn and the other, Brian, who passed away at the age of 19. She carried this loss with grace, allowing God to deepen her compassion and strengthen her faith.

She is survived by her beloved sister, Cheri Masek, along with extended family and many cherished friends whose lives were forever changed by her prayers, mentorship, and love.

Patricia Ann King leaves behind a legacy of faith, prayer, and service. Her life was a living testimony that God is near, prayer matters, and love never fails. Though she will be deeply missed, we rejoice in knowing she now rests in the presence of the Savior she served so faithfully.

“ Patricia was a dear friend that I saw many times a year. We shared November birthdays and often celebrated together. We had great conversations and she often talked about her son in a peaceful, safe place. I will miss her calls, her laughter and her kindness. Rest in peace my friend 🙏

“ Patricia made a huge difference in my life at a time I was at my lowest. I will always be grateful for God putting her in my life at just the right time.
