

Patrick Alexander Imhof

July 21, 1993 - November 16, 2018

Patrick Alexander Imhof, age 25, died on Friday, Nov. 16, 2018, at his family home in Ferndale.

He is survived by his parents, Donald and Robin Imhof; his beloved son and daughter, Kelley and Addilyn Imhof; his sister, Katherine Imhof; and all of his grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Patrick was born in St. Joseph's Hospital in Bellingham on July 21, 1993. He attended school in the Ferndale district from kindergarten to his graduation at Ferndale High School. He briefly attended Central Washington University before he found his calling in farming and went to work at Western Waves Dairy. An avid sportsman, on his days off Patrick could always be found afield hunting whatever wildlife was in season with one of his many friends.

A funeral mass will be held in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Ferndale, on Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 11 a.m. with a Rosary prayer service beforehand at 10:30 a.m. followed by a gathering in the parish hall where there will be food and drinks. On Monday, Nov. 26 there will also be a visitation in Moles Farewell Tributes in Ferndale, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. There, friends and family will have the opportunity to say goodbye and write messages to Patrick on his casket.

“ My heartfelt sympathies go out to the Imhof family. Know that our Heavenly Father hears your prayers and will sustain you (1Peter 5:17) during this difficult time. May you find comfort from the loving promise of seeing your loved one again (1Thessalonians 4:13,14). Please accept my deepest condolences.

“ There are no words to share that can convey that we are so very saddened or express in some way that understand your loss. It hurts so bad but knowing you as I do, I know that Patrick knew he had parents and family that loved and cared for him. My prayers and very best thoughts are with you. God bless.
