“ To my dearest Grandmother:
I'm writing to you today because I wanted you to know that we all miss you SO much. There's an empty void in our hearts knowing that you are not here with us but we also know that you're in a much better place. No longer will you have to endure the pains of hospital visits, needles, or blood draws. You're no longer bound to a walker that will only go as far body allowed but instead, you're free. The love of your life, your husband, who has been waiting for you for so many years, you now are together. I love you. We all love you Grandma.

“ I miss you grandma. I am sad and wish you were still here with us. I miss your kindness and your sweetness. I miss taking you to the store to get yarn so you can knit scarves for us. My heart is aching knowing you are not here. I love you Ba Wi.

“ Grandma, Bà ngoại, I love you so much and miss you. We all miss you. It's difficult to say good bye when I am not ready to. I will miss everything about you and I know someday we will see each other again. I love you!
Your grandson,
Thi
