Robert J. Steidl

August 12, 1954 to April 15, 2013

Bob was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to Robert G. Steidl and Shirley J. Steidl. The family moved to northern Wisconsin where Bob grew up and his Dad had a plumbing business. He, his dad and brothers all loved to hunt and fish. He was preceded in death by his father and youngest brother Tom.

Following in his father's footsteps, Bob was indentured and served his 5 year apprenticeship under his father's leadership. He then acquired his Plumbing License and became the youngest Journeyman Plumber in the state at the time.

In Milwaukee in 1973 Bob met Joann, the love of his life. They were married the following year. The couple lived in Eagle River, Wisconsin; Mesa, Arizona and briefly in McMurdo Antarctica before settling in Bellingham, Washington where Bob opened and ran a plumbing business for over 20 years.

He has been a long time member and volunteer of the American Legion Post 7 SAL and also the Elks Lodge 194.

Bob had a way of bringing out the best in others, always had a positive attitude and enjoyed making people laugh.

He is deeply missed by his devoted wife Joann, his mother Shirley, brother Steve and sister-in-law Kate, along with extended family and many dear friends.

“ Dear Joann and Family We all express our sincere sympathy for the loss of Rob. My mom said to make sure you knew that she was saying prayers for all of you and she was very deeply saddened by his passing. Please know that the entire Steidl Family here in Wisconsin sends you love and prayers at this very difficult time.
