

Ronald Lloyd Roberts

January 7, 1942 - May 3, 2019

Ronald Lloyd Roberts, age 77, of Bellingham, passed away on May 3, 2019. He was born on January 7, 1942, in Sedro Woolley, WA to George and Virginia (Cheer) Roberts. Ronald attended Mt. Baker Schools then moved to Nooksack where he graduated from High School. He married Arlene Joe in Bellingham on February 1, 1975. Ronald's hobbies included fishing, bingo and going to the casino. He loved camping, family outings, visiting family in Canada and everywhere, eating at different restaurants, going to the waterslides, watching, boxing and wrestling. His family will miss his goofiness, his smile, his laugh and his jokes. Ronald is survived by his wife Arlene; daughters Virginia and Margaret; sons Mitchell and Brian, brothers Larry and Solomon, sisters Dolly and Toozy; 8 grandchildren 12 great-grandchildren and 6 nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his first wife Darelene; son Melvin; parents; sisters Turdy and Mary Ann. A prayer service will be held on Tuesday, May 7, at 6:00pm. Funeral services will be Wednesday, May 8, at 10:00am. Both services will be at the Nooksack Community Building.