“ Brian, Alan and families, I'm so very sorry your loss. I remember your Mom fondly. She was always so kind to me. I will never forget how she helped me in the past when right before moving I fell ill and she unpacked the house while I recuperated. She was truly a lovely person.
I will Keep you all in my prayers.

“ We are sad to read of Rosalie's passing. She was a kind and lovely lady who lived next to us on Poplar Drive for a number of years. We often brought her "Rosalie" tulips from LaConner in the spring. We always exchanged Christmas cards, and are sad to take her off our list.
