

Rosemarie Chamney Sanford

January 27, 1937 - January 24, 2018

Rosemarie was born in Arron, Saskatchewan to Alvetus and Annie Anderson on January 24, 1937. She is survived by her husband of 62 years, Morris; three children, Lorie, Bill, and Ron; four grandchildren, Bryce, Eric, Brandon, and Brittan; one great-grandchild, Jayden; and a large extended family.

Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there. I did not die.

“ Morris, Lorie, Bill, Ron, I”m so sorry to hear of your moms passing. She will truly be missed. I have so many memories of her throughout my entire life. From 4th of July parties, Halloween parties, cookie exchanges, the logging show, and camping, clam digging, and hanging out at all of your garage sales. She was a good friend to my parents, and then to my mom after my dad passed away. My girls have so many memories of trick or treating at your house and always begged me to go to “Grandma Rose’s”. Please give my mom a hug for me when you see her, I miss her so much. May you Rest In Peace.

“ All the memories of childhood and 4th of July stand out. The long friendship to my mother and many others and Rose’s chuckle and smile combined with drive and stubbornness are alive. May your family rest and find peace at this difficult time and heal with time.
