

Ruth Silverson Lumbert

April 6, 1914 - July 11, 2012

Ruth Silverson Lumbert, age 98, of Bellingham, WA, passed away peacefully Wednesday, July 11, 2012 in Bellingham. She was the seventh of eighth children born to Nels and Madeline (Silverson) Nelson on April 6, 1914 in Ganges, Salt Spring Island, British Columbia, Canada. Ruth married Edwin McKay on October 23, 1934 and they moved to Bellingham in 1935. An avid Mariners fan and gardener, Ruth loved to can and was especially known for her garlic dills. Edwin preceded her in death in 1982. She married Lloyd Lumbert in 1983 and Lloyd died in 1986.

Ruth was a longtime member of Faith Lutheran Church and is survived by Ted (Peg) Nelson of Victoria, B.C., Christine (Robert) Ford of Arras, B. C. and numerous other nieces and nephews as well as close friends Meta West and Paul Spinelli.

Moles Farewell Tributes, Bellingham, Bayview Events Center

Farewell Tribute Information

Memorials may be made to Faith Lutheran Church or a favorite charity.

Funeral Services will be held 1:00 p.m. Monday, July 23, 2012 at Faith Lutheran Church, McLeod and Northwest. Burial will follow at Greenacres

Memorial Park. Please sign the online guest book and share your thoughts and memories of Ruth at www.farewelltributes.com.

Tribute Wall

RP

“ To the loving Family and dear Friends of your dearly loved Ruth.,may I offer my sympathy. She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her. Hopefully the Bible Verses that follow will give you comfort and peace at this difficult time.

Psalm34:18 “GOD IS NEAR TO THOSE THAT ARE BROKEN AT HEART, AND THOSE WHO ARE CRUSHED IN SPIRIT HE SAVES.”

Rita Perry - July 11, 2012 at 12:00 AM