

Sharon Lee Bredman

January 6, 1941 - September 1, 2025

Sharon Lee Bredman, aged 84, was a lifelong resident of the Pacific Northwest. Born in Bellingham, Washington on January 6, 1941, she attended schools across Whatcom and Skagit counties and graduated from Mt Vernon High School.

In 1958, Sharon married Wayne Bredman, sharing a fifty-year love story marked by devotion to family, friends, and faith. Together, they made their home in both Skagit and Whatcom counties, sharing experiences such as camping, traveling, fishing, and gardening. Their bond was strengthened by commitment and companionship, serving as one another's best friends.

Sharon is remembered by her three children: Diana Lamont, Jill Byram, and David Bredman. She is also survived by three grandchildren she cherished: Andrew Lamont, Tyler Bredman, and Julia Peña; two great-grandsons, Marcos and Cruz Peña, and her sister, Althea Weidkamp.

Sharon maintained a steadfast relationship with the Lord throughout her life, finding peace and comfort in His love. She passed peacefully on September 1st, 2025, in Bellingham, following complications related to dementia at the Peace Health Whatcom Hospice House in Bellingham.

Tribute Wall

SR

“ *Jill and family, you are all in our hearts on this day as we gather to honor your dear Mother. Sending lots of love and light your way.
Terry and Sherri*

Sherri Nevala and Terry Rigelman - September 25, 2025 at 12:00 AM

SF

“ Thank you for telling us of your mother's home-going! Sharon was such a great encourager! When she moved to Skagit County, we missed her weekly attendance at Evergreen Community Church. So thankful that her faith is now sight!

Steve & Natalie Finkbonner - September 08, 2025 at 12:00 AM