

Shirley Kimball Hill

March 23, 1933 - December 4, 2014

SHIRLEY KIMBALL HILL passed away Thursday, December 4th. She was born on March 23, 1933 to Joseph Francis Hill and Mildred Eloise Kimball in New Jersey and grew up in California.

Shirley earned her Bachelor of Music degree from the Thornton School of Music of the University of Southern California with a major in organ performance and sacred music. She spent her career serving in various positions of Organist and Director of Music for various Episcopal churches in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Intending to retire, Shirley returned to the Pacific Coast and settled in Bellingham. She spent the remainder of her life serving as organist in various local churches. Outside of her professional interests, she enjoyed baking and cooking and avidly read about national political affairs.

A funeral service will be held at First Baptist Church (110 Flora St., Bellingham) on Friday, December 12th at 1pm, followed by burial at Woodlawn Cemetery at 2:30pm. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to American Guild of Organists. You may click the link to the left to access the Guild.
