

Shirley Mabel Simonson

May 22, 1924 - December 3, 2014

Shirley M. Simonson of Everson, WA joined her Lord and Savior on December 3rd, 2014.

Shirley and Lee moved from Iowa to Everson in 1949. They each had their own business; J & L Studebaker and Shirley's Beauty Bar where she was a beautician for many years. Shirley always presented herself well, never leaving the house without her lipstick and a perfected perm. Later in life, Shirley's hobbies included reading, puzzles, attending social and musical events at Woodway Senior Living, and reading the daily newspaper.

She is preceded in death by her husband Lee, who passed in 1989, and survived by her two sons Roger (Carol), and Russ (Fran), and her five brothers. Shirley was blessed with four granddaughters and eleven great-grandchildren.
