

Tammy Jo Tom

December 16, 1968 - March 3, 2026

Tammy Jo Tom was a loving mother, sister, and grandmother who cared deeply about her family. She was known for being honest, funny, hardworking, and dedicated. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

Tammy attended NWIC and worked as an office manager for Native Wild Seafoods and was known for being dependable and committed.

Tammy loved spending time with her family. One of her favorite things to do was go to the casino with her grandkids. She also enjoyed watching her sons play sports and was always happy to support them.

Her friends and family will remember her fry bread, her jokes, her love of children, and her cups of ice.

Tammy was preceded in death by her spouse, Jay R. Martin; her sister, Melvina Tom; her brother, Clarence "Boogie" Tom; and her grandsons, Blake Martin and Addison Martin.

She is survived by her sisters Janet Ballew, Doris Jefferson, Karen Tom, and Tina Tom; and her sons Garrick Martin (Cece Martin), Jaycob Martin (Sonia Martin), and Tyler Martin. She also leaves behind many family members and friends who will miss her very much.

Prayer Service

Wexliem Community Building

Friday, March 6, 6:00 PM

Funeral Service

Wexliem Community Building

Saturday, March 7, 10:00 AM

Procession to follow

Lummi Nation Cemetery

Cemetery Details

Lummi Nation Tribal Cemetery

3700 Lummi View Dr.
Bellingham, WA 98226

Tribute Wall

MH

“ Grandma Tammy we played our Dancing Drums last night in memory of you .. love you and miss you 💜🙏 Our Prayers are with your boys and Grandkids 💜

Maria Hillaire - March 05 at 07:00 PM