

Terri Louise Jones

October 15, 1949 - July 30, 2019

Terri Louise Jones passed away peacefully in Bellingham, Washington on July 30th at the age of 69. Terri was recently retired and had a passion for cats, Harry Potter, bird watching and knitting. Terri volunteered annually at Best Friends Animal Society in Utah, an organization for the rescue, shelter, and adoption of animals. Terri was compassionate, focused, and unafraid to share her opinion freely. Terri grew up in southern California and moved to Bellingham to be closer to son and new grandson in 2001. Terri is survived by her son Sean, his wife Pam (Laughlin) and her grandson Seamus, her brother Steve and wife June, and her sister Nikki (Martin.) Terri also leaves behind her beloved cats Rex, Roxy, and Zoe. Terri was preceded in death by her father Alan and mother Louise.

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, September 1st from 12:00-3:00 at the Squalicum Boathouse on Zuanich Point.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her honor to Best Friends Animal Society at BestFriends.org.
