“ Anne was a lovely woman. I knew her from Stafholt, as well, as I spend time with friends who are residents there. I am so sorry for her loss and miss her so much. Godspeed, Anne.

“ Dear family of Anne, I enjoyed knowing Anne so much even if only for a short time, during the time she lived at Stafholt. She was such a dear friend of Ann Walter, and it was through Ann that I got to know Anne. Ann has asked me to play for Anne's service and it is with pleasure that i can do this. Don Walter and I played at Stafholt for its residents and Anne was almost always there to hear us. After Don could no longer play, I played with two other women, The husband of one of these women was a high school classmate of Anne. The last time we played for Stafholt she thanked us and looked forward to the next time we would be at Stafholt. i loved her wit and love of Elvis, so it was fun to prepared an Elvis song for her. Marjorie Reichhardt hope this goes to the family.
