“ How could such a sweet, kind woman as Theresa Clough die without any recognition, any accolades, any memories from those who knew her? I just today learned of her death. How could she have passed away without any announcement, any acknowledgement of her accomplishments, any recognition of how she reached out to others? I knew her only as I met her at St. Francis assisted living and at Assumption Catholic Church, but there never was any doubt that she loved the Lord and cared very much for those around her. – Joe
