“ I had the pleasure and privilege of being Tom’s brother-in-law. Although because we lived on opposite coasts, I didn’t get to see him very often. But, on those occasions when we were able to get together, it was always an enjoyable experience. Tom was a true gentleman, patriot, and a loving husband, father and grandfather. I will miss him dearly.

“ It saddens me to hear this. My condolences to Tom’s family. I got to know Tom when we both worked at GP. He was always a nice guy to be around. I bumped into him several times after retirement and we would have a good talk about our times at the mill.
