“ Your dad & I worked at the Lummi Casino at the same time. He & my dad, John Curry fished with David Dickenson in Alaska. You might remember my dad because he would bring apples to all of you. I know you know what a wonderful person he was even when he was a strict parent when you needed it. He was so proud of his children. You have wonderful memories to recall into the future. If I had known I would have come to the services. You were blessed to have had him as your father & I was blessed to have known him & called him a friend. May you heal from sorrow swiftly & laugh with the memories. Sincerely, Margaret Curry
