

Virgil Charles Williams

February 7, 1932 - February 8, 2015

Virgil Charles Williams, age 82, passed away due to on going health problems at his home in the Columbia neighborhood of Bellingham.

He was born on March 7, 1932 in Canova, South Dakota to Clinton and Hazel Williams. After serving over twenty years with the U.S. Air Force, he and his wife Marie decided to retire in Bellingham. Virgil worked for the state, in the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), helping people in need. He enjoyed working with seniors and the disabled.

At the age of 62, he retired from DSHS.

Survivors include his wife, Marie; two adopted sons, Robert J. Williams and David E. Williams, who feel lucky to have been raised by such a wonderful man; two grandsons, Shawn Williams and Jesse Williams; and one granddaughter, Amy Pettrucie.

At Virgil's request, no services will be held. His final resting place will be at Greenacres Memorial Park in Ferndale, Washington.
