

Walter John Williams Jr.

January 13, 1943 - September 19, 2021

Walter John Williams Jr was born in Mount Vernon, Washington to Walt and Clara Williams on January 13, 1943 and raised in Deming, Washington. He passed away on September 19, 2021 in Bellingham, Washington.

Walt married Lena Williams on December 14, 1974. He worked as a logger for most of his life. He also worked on the railroads, and worked for Whatcom County Parks and Rec and at the Lummi Dyke. He joined seowen the winter of 1964-65 and really believed and loved the life.

Walt was always a happy person, humble, and never mad or angry. He is known for being kind-hearted, generous, and loving all of his family and especially his grandchildren. His big smile and dimples will be remembered most.

He enjoyed playing stick game and canoe paddling on the Lone Wolf. He also enjoyed watching wrestling, the National Geographic, and the Deadliest Catch. He enjoyed making iron wood fish sticks and stick game sets. He enjoyed traveling with the Nooksack Elders Group.

He is survived by his sister Geraldine Billy, his daughters Kathy (August) Joseph, and Crystal (Lawrence) Bailey. He is also survived by 20 grandchildren, over 40 great grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild, and numerous nieces and nephews.

He is pre-deceased by his parents: Walt & Clara (George) Williams, wife Lena (Victor) Williams, and his children Lillian Williams, Sharon Williams, "Wally" Walter Williams, Marvin Williams, Robert Williams, Peter Williams, Pauline Charlie, and grand daughter Amanda Williams.

A prayer service will be held on Tuesday, September 21, at 6:00pm. Funeral services will be Wednesday, September 22, at 10:00am. Both services will be held at the Nooksack Community Building.
