“ So sorry to hear of your loss. She was a wonderful, caring woman who lived with grace and was close to the Lord and her family and friends. I will always remember the music parties with Ellis and Wilhelma. He stirred the air with old fiddle tunes while she stirred the pot of wonderful food. She was a great cook and storyteller. My two girls, Gretta and Heidi called her Grandma Cowin. What a sweet lady. My prayers are with you. Love, Gloria Barnes.

“ Blessings to you and Willy, I taught with her at Mt. View and loved her work with Kindergartners and Ellis's violin music at some of our gatherings. I was able to visit Lynden Christian Health Center many times as my Step father and mother were there. Willy shared a room with my mom. Finally rest for a wonderful woman.
