

William Van Etten

May 23, 1949 - July 18, 2013

A lifetime resident of Bellingham, Jack passed away July 18, 2013. Jack was an outdoors guy. He enjoyed fishing, crabbing and hunting. He worked in the fishing industry, first working in canneries in Alaska, and later learning the machinist trade and working with his dad. They were best friends. Jack loved his dogs; his lifetime companions, Julie and Partner. He had many friends that would come over to visit and work in the shop with him. Jack could fix anything.

Jack is survived by his sister, Stephanie Ross and her two children, Aleda Escalona and Nathan Ross, as well as extended family and friends.
